Research Interests

European History

History of Global Humanitarianism

International History

Terrorism and Counterterrorism

Film History

Fascism

Italian and German History

For over 15 years I have conducted historical research at a variety of national and international research institutions and universities in Europe and the United States. My teaching experience is based on over 15 years of instruction at various American and German universities, serving as a mentor and advisor for students of varying levels of scholarship. Eager to engage in academic exchange and contribute to outreach programs by giving public lectures and organizing conferences.
